Fiona the Fox

Fiona is smart and agile. Having spent a great deal of time alone in her forest, it has allowed her to think deeply about life. She sees past the superficial to what truly is beneath, but still has the care to be gentle with others. Her insight into the world is a blessing in the awareness it provides, but it can also be a lonely place.